

Skills Competition: Pitch Your Passion

pitch for a cause that is important to you

1st prize:
£1,000
donation

other prizes available

What is it?

For National Careers Week, RAW Capital Partners are offering the opportunity for post-16 students to pitch on behalf of a charitable cause that is important to them!

The winner will earn a £1,000 donation to their chosen charity. Other prizes may be awarded at our discretion.

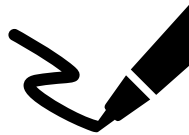

1st prize:
£1,000
donation

Why get involved?

A skills competition helps highlight skills needed for a role in industry or higher education. As well as the worthiness of your chosen charity, our judging panel will be considering your ability to:

write effectively and concisely

engage an audience
and be persuasive

How do you get involved?

1. write a short memo on why your charity is worthy of consideration
2. give a short presentation to our judging panel
3. winners will be announced after the final presentation

Memos should be submitted to james@rawcapitalpartners.com by midnight on 7 March.
